Call for Judicial Republican Convention.

The republicans of the forty-second judicial district of the state of Indiana will meet in delegate convention at Paoli, Ind., on Saturday September 27th, 1902, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a republican candidate for prosecuting attorney of said district.

The apportionment of delegates will be the same as that applied to the last republican state convention. Jackson county will be entitled to fourteen delegates and fourteen alternates; Orange county will be entitled to eleven delegates and eleven alternates; Washington county will be entitled to eleven delegates and eleven alternates, making the total number of delegates thirty-six; necessary to a choice, nineteen. By order of

W. H. BURKLEY Chairman Jackson County R. C. C.
J. P. THROOP, Chairman Orange County R. C. C.
LEWIS DENNIS, Chairman Washington County R. C. C.

Republican Township Conventions.

The republicans of Jackson county will meet in their several townships Saturday September 6th, 1902, at 1:30 o'clock p. m., and select delegates and alternates to the congressional, judicial and county conventions. The apportionment of delegates and alternates for the county convention will be one delegate and one alternate to every 15 votes and fraction of 10 votes cast for Hugh H. Hanna, republican elector at large, at the November election 1900.

The apportionment of delegates and alternates to the congressional and judicial conventions will be one delegate and one alternate to every 200 votes and fraction of 100 votes cast for Hugh Hanna, elector at large at the November election 1900.

On the above apportionments Jackson county will elect 184 delegates and 184 alternates to the county convention, and 14 delegates and 14 alternates each to the congressional and judicial conventions.

The apportionment for the several townships and the places of meeting and selecting same are as follows: JACKSON TOWNSHIP AT SEYMOUR. 70 delegates and 70 alternates for county convention.
5 delegates and 5 alternates to Congressional convention.
5 delegates and 5 alternates to Judicial convention.
BROWNSTOWN TOWNSHIP AT BROWNSTOWN. 17 delegates and 17 alternates to county convention.
1 delegate and 1 alternate to congressional convention.

1 delegate and 1 alternate to judicial convention.
VERNON TOWNSHIP AT CROTHERSVILLE. 17 delegates and 17 alternates to county convention.
1 delegate and 1 alternate to congressional convention.

This signature is on every box of the genuine
Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets
this remedy that cures a cold in one day.

1 delegate and 1 alternate to judicial convention.

1 delegate to judicial convention.
1 alternate to congressional convention.
W. H. BURKLEY, Chairman.
E. A. REMY, Sec.

The contest between Maj. Long and Ralph Applewhite is getting interesting. It will be decidedly more so before the date of that bogus primary.

Times are prosperous and the people want good times to continue. They will vote the republican ticket this fall. They will take no chances as they did in 1892.

If that republished interview quotes Joe Shea correctly he is about the only democrat who has been able to discover a genuine article of democratic harmony in recent months.

HENRY WATSON goes after Cleveland again good and proper. But he need not be afraid of the people electing him again. The results of 1892 are too fresh in the memory.

OSCAR BROOKE has been advising with friends about being a candidate before the democratic primary No. 2. The encouragement he has received has not caused him to spend any money making announcements.

The republicans of Indiana will formally open the campaign in the state September 20. That is the date of the Jackson county convention which means that the republicans of this county will be in evidence that day.

AFTER all experience teaches that the greatest of all civilizers is work. Comparatively little devilry is done while persons are industriously at work, whether the same be manual or clerical. It is the loafing season that breeds mischief. Then it is that plans are laid for doing improper things.—South Bend Times.

The Chicago Chronicle, the leading democratic paper of Chicago and owned by John R. Walsh, says: "Unless all appearances are deceitful a majority of the democrats of the country are more inclined to vote for a republican than they are to vote for some democrats." Their inclination is evidently to let well enough alone.

THE democrats of Jackson county are not all of the opinion that James Applewhite, the county chairman, acted the part of a good politician when he engineered a plan for another democratic primary. Some of them even go so far as to charge that the chairman was looking to the interest of his son instead of to the interest of his party. They are sure they see his purpose in keeping his plans to himself until the committee met. Some of them would like to know the date of that letter from O'Brien. But this is a matter for the candidates to ascertain. They are entitled to all the information at hand.

Henry L. Shattuck, of Shellsburg, Iowa, was cured of a stomach trouble with which he had been afflicted for years, by four boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He had previously tried many other remedies and a number of physicians without relief. For sale by C. W. Milhous.

John and Allen Roseberry, of North Vernon, after having attended the reunion left for their homes this morning.
Henry Otterman, of Cincinnati, who has been visiting in the Kasting neighborhood, left for his home this morning.
Henry Ulland and wife, of Cincinnati, arrived today to visit her uncle, August Hustedt, of Bobbittown.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum.
"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwaller, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by C. W. Milhous.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

Rev. E. G. Shouse, of Kokomo, made a prohibition speech at the First National Bank corner to a small but attentive audience Friday night.

Republicans of Jackson county should keep in mind that delegates to the county, congressional and judicial conventions will be chosen in the several townships on Saturday, September 6, at 1:30 p. m.

The Jackson county republican convention will be held at Brownstown on Saturday, September 20. The convention will be called to order at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

Jennings county democrats will nominate a county ticket by delegate convention Saturday, September 6th.

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED.

At Panama, Columbia, by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Dr. Charles H. Utter, a prominent physician, of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale by C. W. Milhous.

Had a Pleasant Drive.

John A. Goodale while entertaining old comrades yesterday after the last session of the reunion proposed a carriage drive which was promptly accepted. A two horse carriage was ordered and a jolly party consisting of Col. V. V. Williams, of Bedford, Dr. Lewis Scooler, of Des Moines, Ia., Capt. Newton Mathews, of Bloomington, George Boas, of Washington, and Mr. Goodale, took in the beauties of Seymour and some of the surrounding country.

Shiloh Men.

A great many of the old soldiers of Indiana who fought in the battle of Shiloh are planning to witness the dedication of the monuments being erected on the battlefield by our state. A splendid trip is being arranged. The special train, as we understand, will pass through Seymour. The date and rates will be announced later. It is probable that some Seymour men will be in the party.

Indianapolis Bread.

DR. GERRISH, President.

One of the few magazines that give fair and unbiased treatment to the great affairs that make and move a nation, is "Success." One by one it seems to be taking hold of the important American industries, and explaining them in a manner that interests all classes of readers. In the September issue, John Gilmer Speed describes the methods and purposes of the much mooted beef trust, in an article entitled, "The Beef Trust and the Public." He gives a very thorough meaning of the reasons for the trust and its relations to the general public. David Buffum contributes an interesting article on "The Correct Method of Training Horses," which seems to be of value to all who appreciate horses.

The funeral of Beatrice Rotger, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rotger, will take place Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence.

Chaffee and the Moros.
Manila, Aug. 23.—General Chaffee returned to Manila yesterday from his tour of the southern islands. He has not taken decisive action against the Moros of the island of Mindanao. He regards the situation there as uncertain but not critical. General Chaffee still hopes that moral suasion may avert a conflict between Moros and Americans, and he has directed Capt. John J. Pershing of the Fifteenth infantry, commander of the American column at Lake Lanao, Mindanao, to open communication with the sultan of Bacolod and ascertain the reason for the repeated attacks by Moros upon American soldiers when the latter were not on the offensive. He will await a reply from the sultan before taking further steps in the matter.

No Excuse.

A member of a volunteer fire brigade did not appear on the scene of the conflagration until after the fire was under control. He was severely taken to account by the chief for thus neglecting his duty.
"I could not help it," replied the fireman. "I live a long way from the fire."
"That's no excuse," snapped the chief. "You must move nearer the text fire."—London Answers.

Pay Your Debts.

"No, sir," declared Gazzan as he warmed up to his subject. "You'll never be happy so long as you are in debt. Pay your debts. Swayback; pay your debts."
"But I have no money," said Swayback.
"Then borrow it!"—Detroit Free Press.

Preaching monkeys.

The author of "The History of Brazil" tells of a species of monkey called "preachers." Every morning and evening these monkeys assemble in the woods. One takes a higher position than the rest and makes a signal with his bare paw. At this signal the others sit around him and listen. When they are all seated, he begins to utter a series of sounds. When he stops these cries, he makes another signal with his paw and the others cry out until he makes a third signal, upon which they become silent again. This author, Mr. Macgregor, asserts that he was a witness to these preachings.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE CLOSED

A Profitable Week of Institution for Teachers of the County.

The institute opened Friday morning with a good attendance. After the opening exercises Prof. Kinsey continued the subject of music. He reviewed most of the work that he had presented during the week.

Prof. McKenna talked on the science of Education again, continuing the discussion of the law of imitation. He also took up the subject of experimental knowledge and applied it to teaching the child. The child must learn much by experience. Experience forms the basis of new knowledge. Give the child substance which he can comprehend and see what he does. Remember the three great laws of development, activity, imitation and experience.

Dr. Dennis took up the subject of nature study again and made another practical and interesting talk. Dr. Dennis has put much life into this very interesting subject and succeeded in imparting new interest in this line of work.

Prof. McKenna gave another valuable discussion of grammar and history which closed the work of the instructors for the week.

This institute was a grand success. The instructors did superior work. No teacher who heard them but was benefited and rendered more capable of discharging his school duties. Our worthy superintendent, J. E. Payne, had spared no pains on his part. The people of Brownstown had spared no effort to accommodate the large crowd. And all in all it was all that could be desired. Much good along the line of school work was done. A deeper interest and firmer resolve was surely fixed with every one.

By a unanimous vote of the institute it was decided to hold the next meeting of the Jackson County Teachers' Association at Seymour, after Thanksgiving, 1902.

Attendance and enrollment on Thursday was 183. A. E. R.

Don't miss the hot lunch at the New Lynn bar tonight.

Ellen Olney Kirk's new novel is published entire in the September number of Lippincott's Magazine, issuing August 21. It is a comedy particularly suited to lazy early autumn days when readers want sauce piquante served as well with literary food as with every-day meals. The story is American, with a heroine "exquisite beyond all women!" Having at stake a fortune, she carries out an original scheme to marry the lover. Humor is paramount.

At the July term of commissioners' court and again at the August term the majority of the voters of the Second ward of this city expressed themselves against the establishing of a saloon in the room formerly occupied by the Converse drug store on Second street. Now Frank Riehl gives notice that he will apply for license at the September term to operate a saloon in that room. The voters of the ward have probably not changed their minds in so short a time.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Sand Creek Bridge Letting

At the joint meeting of the commissioners of Jackson, Bartholomew and Jennings counties at Columbus Thursday the contract to build the bridge over Sand Creek at Stout's Mill was awarded to Stillinger & Lee, of Columbus, but since this firm did not have the lowest bid a law suit may follow. The bids and bidders were as follows:

Stillinger & Lee.....$2,450 00

Newcastle Bridge Co.....2,441 50

Lafayette Engineering Co.....2,575 00

Vincennes Bridge Co.....2,544 00

Canton Bridge Co.....2,800 00

Indpls Bridge & Iron Works, 2,494 00

It will be seen that the Newcastle Bridge Company was $5.50 under Stillinger & Lee and the representative of that company threatens to have an injunction suit brought to prevent a contract with Stillinger & Lee.

September National.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, and Senator Paris Gibson of Montana, contribute to the September National strong articles on two public problems of the first class. Senator Lodge takes occasion in his National article to interpret for the general understanding the terms of the Philippine civil government bill, which he chiefly shaped, and to forecast the future of the Philippines under the flag of the United States. Senator Gibson urges the duty of congress to save all remaining public lands for actual home seekers, and warns this country that tens of thousands of our farmers are settling in northwestern Canada because of our failure to adopt this policy.

On Program With Gov. Bliss.

A copy of the Saginaw (Mich.) Evening News states that on Thursday of this week Earl M. Cox, of this city, was on the program given at the Police Outing at Union Park at Saginaw, for two numbers, as characterist and in musical novelties. Hon. A. T. Bliss, governor of Michigan, was on the same program for an address. This is quite an honor to Earl and his many friends here at home congratulate him on the success he is making as an entertainer.

Time to Buy Coal

It is the general belief that owing to the strike of coal miners the price of coal will advance quite soon. The advance may be considerable. The prevailing opinion among those who have given the coal market attention is that the consumer who buys coal now will act wisely. Cars are scarce now and getting scarcer. You may not be able to get your coal when you want it if you postpone buying. You take no risks by buying now.

G. A. R. Encampment Train.

Adjutant General Smock announces that the Big Four and the Chesapeake & Ohio railroads will be the official routes to the National G. A. R. Encampment at Washington. The Indianapolis special train will leave Sunday afternoon, October 5, at 3:50 o'clock. A big delegation of Indiana veterans will go, it is announced.

Marion Calls Rev. Clevenger.

The Baptist Outlook says that Rev. J. W. Dyspepsia Cure

You need all kinds of food to maintain the body. Curtail this variety and some organ is underfed. It is for this reason that a diet is injurious. If you cannot digest good food your stomach is out of order and needs rest. You cannot go without food for that would mean starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat without the stomach's aid. Take it and you can rest your stomach without interrupting digestion. It is nature's own remedy. Never fails. Anderson Riggs, Sunny Lane, Tex., says: "I was troubled with indigestion ten years and tried many things and spent much money until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I am now feeling better than in five years and more like a boy than in twenty."

NOW IS THE TIME TO ACT.

NOT BURIED AT SEA.

The Humane French Boatman and the Dead Englishman.

A long expected French lugger was seen making for the roadstead, and the Lowestoft free traders were on the alert, anxiously seeking an opportunity for communicating with her crew. While they waited for a lapse of vigilance on the part of the excisemen, a boat was lowered from the lugger and rowed toward the shore. A curious crowd of beach men and excisemen assembled to meet her, and as she came in on the crest of a roller it was observed that she contained a coffin.

The French boatman had a mournful tale to tell. On board the lugger had been an Englishman suffering from an illness which soon proved fatal. In his last moments of consciousness he had begged the captain not to bury him at sea, but to keep his body until a resting place could be found for it under the green turf of a churchyard in his native land. Sympathy with his sad fate and the knowledge that the lugger was not far from the English coast had induced the captain to consent, and now he had sent the body ashore for burial. In spite of his broken English, the Frenchman's spokesman told his tale well.

Both excisemen and beach men—especially the latter—loudly expressed their admiration of the captain's conduct. A parson was summoned, and in a little while a mournful procession made its way from the beach to the churchyard. Even the chief officer of the excisemen was present and is said to have shed tears.

That night the local "resurrectionists" were busy, and at dawn the churchyard contained a desecrated grave. A little way inland, however, in the midst of the marshes, a smugglers' store received the addition of a coffin filled with silks and lace—"Highways and Byways in East Anglia," W. A. Dutt.

GONE TO THE VERGE.

He Thought He Had Reached Friendship's Limit.

This young man is not so confiding as he was, and his ideas of friendship are not so exalted. Yet he takes it philosophically and is willing to place a heavy credit in favor of experience. "I started in a small way," he tells, "and I had an idea that my business would expand rapidly. But I find a good many leaks and drains. Of course you know Jones. He is my friend and knows about horses. So when my one horse went lame I consulted him as being the one friend I had who, I thought, could help me out.

"Pretty bad shape," he said as he looked the nag over. "Need him or your delivery wagon, don't you?"

"I need him or some other horse and asked Jones what I could get for the lame one. He looked him over, felt his legs, examined his eyes and teeth and finally said that, being a friend of mine, he'd give me $40 for the horse. I took it. For $40, a fact I learned about a week later.

"Now," said Jones, "I'm not the man to leave a friend in a scrape. I'll just rustle around and find you another horse."

"Thank you, but keep within a hundred. I can't afford to pay more."

"Next morning my friend showed up with a horse he told me I could have for $98, though he was really worth more. He was sound, gentle, 7 years old, according to Jones.

"He had bought that horse for $600. He had spavin and ringbone, was knee sprung and 13 years old. So Jones had made $78 off me and left me with one of the worst old crowsbills you ever saw. I'm not saying much about it, for Jones is my friend, you know. But an old coddler that buys groceries from me says friendship ceases in a horse dealer."—Detroit Free Press.

A Kindly Joke.

Judge Braxfield, famous in England for his love for hanging criminals, when on circuit always put up near Perth with a creny who was devoted to chess. The laird had rather the better of his lordship at the game. In the revolution of the circuits Braxfield found himself trying his hospitable friend, who had got awkwardly mixed up in some abduction of cattle. The evidence was clear, the panel was convicted and the judge passed the solemn sentence of death. Then, bending down, he chuckled to the unfortunate prisoner—the accommodation in the provincial courts was cramped—"And now, Donald, my friend, I think I've checkedmate you for once." But Braxfield delighted in a kindly joke.

Aiding the Beethen.

"Brother Highmore, are you contributing anything for the benefit of the beethen this year?"

"Yes, sir. I am having my washing done at a Chinese laundry."—Chicago Tribune.

HE COWED THE LION.

THE DARKY BELTED ALL THE FIGHT OUT OF MONARCH.

Laughable Manner in Which the Big and Ugly Circus Animal Was Returned to the Showman After a Railroad Smash Up.

"It's queer how animals will act in a railroad wreck," said the boss canvasman. "Now there was th' Sabrelee wreck. Six cars was in th' ditch an' half o' th' show's dens was under 'em. There was one cage o' monkeys mashed flat that we knowed of, an' a lot o' th' other animals had took t' th' woods. Little animals behave an' wolves an' deer an' such like. Nothin' t' do any harm exceptin' th' big lion, Monarch. His den was bottom up in a little puddle o' ditch water, with a hole stove in it big enough t' let out a cow, an' Monarch himself was gone with the little animals.

"Well, it was all off with makin' th' stand that day, so we put up th' runs, got th' cookhouse outfit down on th' ground, had breakfast an' started in t' dig th' stuff out o' th' ditch. Th' railroad company's wreckin' crew cot' along t' help us, an' we'd got purty well under way when a tall, black buck darky come out o' th' woods an' stood round rubberin'.

"Nobody paid any attention t' him fer awhile, but by'n'ly Mack, th' chandler man, spoke t' him, kind o' kidded him about bein' ha'n'some, or some such guff. It was Missouri, an' he was a real black buck. Didn't have anything t' say back—didn't say anything at all. In fact, fer awhile, Jes' shuffled round in his cowhide boots from one foot t' th' other an' grained bashfullike. By'n'ly when he saw we didn't roast him hard he kind o' took courage.

"Did any o' you gemmen lose a g' raffe?" he says.

"G'raffe?" Mack says. "No; we never owned no such thing with this trick why?"

"Well, boss, Ah done found' some thin up in mah' tato patch this mornin', an' Ah 'lowed as maybe hit 'longed t' you all."

"Mack got interested. 'Wat does it look like?"

"Lawdy, boss, hit's mos' monstrous Nevah did see no such ole thing befo', sah. Big cat valaint, with yaller eyes, an' hit done come a snailin' an' a-spittin' at me soon as Ah got out o' baid'."

"Where is it?" says Mack.

"Oh, Ah cawt hit all righty. Doin' put a rope round' hits neck an' tied hit t' mah cabin'."

"Go an' git it an' fetch it down here," says Mack. Then th' wreckin' crew got a tackle round' another den an' we for got all about th' darky.

"Maybe it was 20 minutes, an' maybe it was half an hour when we heard a noise over on th' road amongst th' trees—a noise kinder like a nigger drivin' a mule or like somethin' bein' driven. It come nearer an' louder an' louder an' nearer. Everybody stopped work an' listened, an' th' ole man himself come out o' his car with his napkin hangin' round' his neck.

"What is that?" he pipes up in his snappy way. "Who is that out there? Go an' see what that racket is, some o' you boys. Hurry up, now."

"Nobody paid any attention t' him an' th' noise got nearer an' nearer. In a couple o' minutes a cloud o' dust sailed out from behind th' trees. When it got within a hundred yards o' th' track, it cleared up a bit, an' there was that big, black nigger with a rope in one mit an' a piece o' fence rail in th' other. On th' other end o' th' rope was Monarch.

"Of all th' mean, sneakin', underhanded cat animals that ever traveled with a circus Monarch was th' worst an' a powerful fighter when he had any sort o' show. Sometimes we'd put our hands on th' canvas cover o' his cage when he had t' run over th' train, an' there never was a time, day or night, that he hadn't a slap ready for you.

"Well, that darky was a-lamin' him with his chunk o' fence an' talkin' mule talk t' him wuss than anything you ever saw in th' south.

"'C'm on 'long heah, you yaller-eyed devil,' he was sayin'. 'Ah don't know what you is, but you ain't goin' snail neep at me, nohow. 'C'm on 'long heah, you big sassy valaint,' an' with that he'd lam him with his piece o' fence an' let drive with his cowhide boots.

"An' you kin bet your life Monarch was a-comin'. I never saw a critter so cowed as he was. Why, when that nigger brought him right in amongst us there was nobody that took th' trouble t' open up a gangway, an' I reckon any young one could 'a' took him by th' scruff o' th' neck an' turned him over on his back. He was jest a great, overgrown pet tomcat, with all th' fight an' meanness walloped out o' him.

"We'd yanked his den up on t' road bed with th' hole in th' end butted against a wagon. Th' door was open, an' when Monarch saw his happy little home waitin' there for him he jerked th' rope out o' th' darky's hand an' bolted inside it. He couldn't get fur enough inside, either—went away in th' fur corner an' tried t' hide Sabrelee shut th' door an' spoke to him, but Monarch was th' worst whipped cat animal you ever saw."—New York Sun.

MELANCHOLY WOMEN.

Always Afraid Something Dreadful is Going to Happen. Why Should Women Have the Blues More Than Men?

When a cheerful, brave, and light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery, the blues, it is a sad picture.

It is usually this way:

She has been feeling out of sorts for some time, experiencing severe headache and backache; sleeps very poorly and is exceedingly nervous.

Sometimes she is nearly overcome by faintness, dizziness, and palpitation of the heart; then that bearing-down feeling is dreadfully wearing.

Her husband says, "Now, don't get the blues! You will be all right after you have taken the doctor's medicine."

But she does not get all right. She grows worse day by day, until at last she realizes that a distressing female complaint is established.

Her doctor has made a mistake.

She loses faith; hope vanishes; then comes the morbid, melancholy, everlasting blues. She should have been told just what the trouble was, but probably she withheld some information from the doctor, who, therefore, is unable to accurately locate her particular illness.

Mrs. Pinkham has relieved thousands of women from just this kind of trouble, and now retains their grateful letters in her library as proof of the great assistance she has rendered them. This same assistance awaits every sick woman in the land. Write her to-day.

How Two Women Were Cured.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was troubled very much with female weakness, falling of the womb and bearing down pains. Could not walk fifty yards without stopping to rest, and could not do my work. Life was a burden to me. Now, thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am well and hope that every suffering woman will write to you and be cured."—Mrs. H. R. WELLS, Castlegate, Utah. (Aug. 23, 1900.)

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Please send me your advice in my case. The doctor has examined me, and said my womb was out of place, crooked, and inflamed, and that he could do me no good. I am twenty-nine years old and have been in bad health for five years. Menstruation is not regular, have a discharge all the time, have sleepless nights, my sides and back hurt all the time, and am reduced to a mere skeleton."—Mrs. MAGGIE STARRETT, Keyser, W. Va. (May 16, 1900.)

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I highly praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the good it did me. It caused my menstruation to come all right which had not been for one year, and I am otherwise well, thanks to you."—Mrs. MAGGIE STARRETT, Keyser, W. Va. (Oct. 4, 1900.)

$5000 REWARD. We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

DOUBTFUL RUMORS

And still Scores of Seymour People Accept them as Facts.

The published statement of some stranger residing in a far-away place may be true enough, but it is generally accepted as a doubtful rumor. How can it be verified. The testimony which follows is convincing proof because it comes from a resident of Seymour.

Mrs. Henry Moritz, of Lynn and Laurel streets, says: Doan's Kidney Pills procured of C. W. Milbourn's drug store certainly did me much good. I suffered from a terribly lame back which clung right to me, preventing me resting nights and the kidney secretions were irregular. I also suffered from depressing headache which ascended the back of my neck. From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I can heartily recommend them."

For sale by all dealers, price 50 cts. Foster-Milbourn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. sole agents for the U. S. Remember the Doan's and take no other.
